TARLETON STATE UNIVERSITY™

President's Excellence in Research Scholars Research Symposium

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. Who is eligible to participate in the research symposium?

All PERS recipients are required to present; however, other faculty with or without student-led research projects are eligible to participate.

2. Who is giving the poster presentations?

Students, poster presentations will be led by the student(s). Faculty are welcome to co-present. There will be only one poster per project.

3. Will there be oral presentations?

Yes, however, oral presentations are limited to PERS faculty who have submitted grant proposals to an external agency.

4. When are abstracts due and who will be submitting them?

Abstracts are due by December 3rd to bsaldivar@tarleton.edu using the attached forms. The abstracts will be submitted by faculty on behalf of their students.

5. Will abstracts be accepted for presentation on research that is still in progress?

Yes, if you anticipate completing the project before the research symposium.

6. When are the posters due and what are the guidelines to follow?

More information will follow in the coming months for you to provide to your students on creating their posters.

7. What if the research is not fully completed (still in progress) by the time of presentation?

If research is continuing through the symposium date in February, you can present it as “work in progress”.
